IN THE
UNITED STATES

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD

1855

QUESTION.—What is thy only comfort in life and death?

ANSWER.—That I, with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ, who, with His precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me, that, without the will of my Heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation: and therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready henceforth to live unto Him.

Mr. E. E. PALM, Proprietor Reading Organ Works, Reading, Pa.

Dear Sir:—It affords me pleasure to be able to recommend the work done by you, and particularly the great improvement your new method of direct supply of air to pipes in the organs you build. The large organ placed in the Reformed Church of the Ascension, Norristown, Pa., under your personal management and direction, is giving entire satisfaction.

Very respectfully yours,

H. R. RITTENHOUSE,

S. S. JONES.

JANUARY.

Another Year.

Another year is dawning!
Dear Master, let it be,
In working or in waiting,
Another year for Thee;

Another year of service,
Of witness for Thy love;
Another year of training
For holier work above.

The year just past has been a remarkable one, at least in our national history. By taking up the cause of the oppressed and by the success of our arms on sea and land our position among the great powers of the world has become fully recognized. At the same time it has started us as a people on a course the significance of which it will take time to disclose. Our responsibilities have largely increased. The new year lies before us with all its possibilities untried. With faith in God and loving obedience we need not be afraid to go forward. If He is with us we need not care who is against us.

Our prayer is that it may be a memorable one for the Church of Jesus Christ, and that the Reformed Church may have a part therein. Whether it will be so depends, first, on the will of God, and secondly, on our faith and service. Hence we need to pray and do our duty.

Rev. Thos. G. Apple, D.D., LL.D.

The Church has ever delighted to honor her faithful sons. Among these few have been more able and none more faithful and self-sacrificing than Dr. Apple, whose portrait adorns this page. He was widely known as a teacher and a writer on moral and theological subjects. A generous tribute was paid to his memory in the church papers at the time of his death, and a brief sketch of his life's work will be found on another page. Of him it may be truthfully said: "Whatever he touched he adorned," and "To know him was to love him."

REV. PROF. THOS. G. APPLE, D.D., LL.D.

Our New Almanac.

Last year's Almanac was received with considerable favor, and a larger number was sold than during any year since the Almanac has been published. We hope that the present number will be received with equal favor. It is the aim of the publishers to furnish an interesting year book for our people, and one which, at the same time, will be a book of handy reference. Great pains have been taken to furnish a correct ministerial register. Equal care has been taken to furnish such other data as may be of help to the pastors and members of the churches.

MARCH.

General John Watts DePeyster.

General John Watts de Peyster, of Tivoli, Dutchess county, N. Y., was born in New York city on the 9th of March, 1821, and is the descendant in the seventh generation of the Johanniss de Peyster, who came to New Amsterdam in or before 1645. His mother was "the lovely and intellectual Mary Justina Watts," whose great-grandfather, Robert Watt, of Rose Hill, near Edinburgh, came to New Amsterdam about the close of the seventeenth century. His family is by marriage variously connected with the de Lanceys, Coldens, Livingstones, Beekmans, Schuylers, and Van Cortlandts, who figure so prominently in the colonial and past colonial history of New York.

Although he possesses great wealth and has always enjoyed the exceptional advantages of high social position, General de Peyster is a man of incessant labors. He has devoted much time and study to military matters and for his able reports of his investigations in this field of study, as well as for his various original articles and his translations of celebrated treatises on military science, he was made Brevet-Maj. Gen., S. N. Y., by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the Legislature of that State—an honor never conferred on any one, before nor since.

GEN. JOHN WATTS DE PEYSTER.

But he will be more extensively known, remembered and honored for his generous disposition and his many benevolent deeds, than for his military writings. Years ago he resolved to give of his wealth freely to such causes or institutions as he might consider worthy of his assistance. A church to the village of Madalin, N. Y.; a memorial rectory, a parish school, and other gifts to the Episcopal church at Altoona, Pa.; a farm to the Brothers of Nazareth, and a

Home for Consumptives, both at Union Vale, N. Y.; a Home for Homeless Girls, at Madalin, N. Y., and a large and costly annex to the Leake and Watts' Orphan Asylum at Yonkers, N. Y., are some of his many gifts. He has also erected bronze statues to the memory of several of his ancestors, each of which is a costly and noble work of art. But he has conferred upon Franklin and Marshall college the unique honor of a monument to the memory of his grandfather John Watt, and his father, Fred'k de Peyster, in the shape of the beautiful and well-designed library building which now adorns its campus, and which, to use his own words, was erected in order to perpetuate "the good they did and taught him."

The above cut represents General de Peyster, and those who know him personally can testify that in a wonderful way it is a good likeness.

APRIL.

THE WATTS DE PEYSTER LIBRARY, LANCASTER, PA.

The Watts de Peyster Library of Franklin and Marshall College is built of pressed brick and Vermont marble, and consists of a main building three stories in height, from each of three of the sides of which extends a wing designed for the accommodation of books. The fourth, or east side, affords an entrance to the main building. This entrance consists of a flight of marble steps beneath a marble arch, which supports a beautiful recessed balcony to the second story. As one mounts the steps, he finds on his left hand a massive stone tablet let into the wall and bearing this inscription: "This Library is erected to the memory of John Watts, vir humanitatis, and of Frederick de Peyster, vir acuanimitatis, by a grandson and son who, bearing both names, seeks to perpetuate the good they did and taught him." The building is heated with steam, and is practically fire proof. Excepting the side walls in the main building there is no plastering,—the ceilings being of pressed steel and the brickwork in the wings being left exposed. The ceilings are painted a delicate blue, and the brickwork in the side walls of the stack-rooms a pale straw color. The woodwork is all of ash, or oak, dressed to a natural finish.

Altogether the Watts de Peyster Library is one of the most beautiful and well-designed library buildings in the State of Pennsylvania. The friends of the college have much reason to be grateful to General de Peyster for his noble gift and it is not unnatural to hope that among them some may be found who will freely contribute funds for its endowment. For the library needs a constant supply of money for the purchase of books, in order that it may become what it should be,—the centre of our educational work at Lancaster, and the point of contact with the world of learning abroad.

The year's at the spring
And day's at the morn;
Morning's at seven;
The hillside's dew-pearled;
The lark's on the wing;
The snail's on the thorn;
God's in his heaven—

Henry Bullinger.

Henry Bullinger was born at Bremgarten, Switzerland, July 18, 1504, and died at Zurich, Sept. 17, 1575. As Zwingli's successor as chief pastor of the church of Zurich, he directed its affairs with remarkable wisdom, and was, for many years, regarded as the patriarch of the whole Reformed Church. He adopted Zwingli's children, and provided for his widow as long as she lived. It was mainly through his influence that the immediate followers of Calvin united with those of Zwingli, in 1549; and during the preparation of the Heidelberg Catechism, the Elector, Frederick, sought his advice on every important occasion. He showed great kindness to the English refugees, and a goblet is said to be still in existence which bears the following inscription: "The Church of Zurich received the exiles of England during the reign of Mary. Elizabeth acknowledges this with thanks, and reverently presents this goblet to Bullinger."

HENRY BULLINGER.

Home Missions Last Year.

During the year past eleven missions passed off the roll of the Board, while four were added by division of fields, etc., so that on April 1, '98, there were eighty-nine missions under the care of the Board. One was added since, so that there now are ninety. During the year the debt was reduced to $9,000. The pay-roll of the Board now amounts to about $40,000. About $10,000 were paid by the Church to the extension work. One new Hungarian field was added during the year,—that of South Chicago.

The missions are prosperous and the general work is encouraging. During the year ending Mar. 31, 1898, the Church paid nearly $50,000 to home missions—the largest sum in her history. The Church Extension Department is doing a noble work. The people have been liberal toward this department and quite a number of $500 extension funds have been received.

In 1845 the receipts for home missions in the Reformed Church were only $1500; now the Home board receives annually about $46,000.

The question of planting a new mission in China is receiving awakened attention throughout our Reformed Church. And although the means are not yet available, one-third of the classes at their last annual meetings pronounced in favor of such a forward step.

THE ZWINGLI MEMORIAL AT CAPPEL.

The Battle-field of Cappel.

This picture represents the present appearance of the place where Zwingli shed his blood on the 11th of October, 1531. The rock on the left bears a memorial inscription, and the pear-tree to the right is supposed to mark the spot where he fell. We should never forget the last words of that great and good man: "What does it matter? They may kill the body, but they cannot kill the soul!"

God give us men! a time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands.

The Ministerial Register.

In another part of the Almanac will be found a list of the names of our Reformed ministers and the places in which they live. This list is a great convenience. You can locate any pastor in whom you may be interested. It gives you also some idea of the teaching and writing force of the Church. But as you read over the long list of names ask yourself why your family is not represented on that roll of honor? Would you not like to see the name of your son there? When you look into the face of the lad (may be God has given you more than one), ask yourself the question: Why should he not be a minister?

JULY.

God of Our Fathers.

"God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor thro' the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

"Thy love divine hath led us in the past;
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide and stay,
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way."

The Great Elector.

Frederick William, elector of Brandenburg, usually styled the Great Elector, was born in 1620 and died in 1688. He was the real founder of the Prussian monarchy and is regarded as a national hero. He was earnestly attached to the Reformed faith, and when Louis XIV. revoked the edict of Nantes he immediately invited the persecuted Huguenots to settle in his dominions. His wife, Louisa Henrietta was the author of several beautiful hymns, and one of the noblest characters in the history of the Reformed Church.

Appointments.

What are they? They are sums of money which the Church, through its synods and classes, tells the congregations it needs to carry on the Lord's work. Should we pay them? Certainly. When our Spiritual Mother asks us to share her work as good children, we obey. It is not a tax without representation? No. We elect, through our ministers and elders at classis, the members of the church's boards to which the monies go and by which it is economically expended. But ought not our offerings be free-will offerings? Yes, and the church fixes the very lowest sum with which she can manage to get along, and so leaves you to give over and above the small apportionments all you want to give. You are free to give to your heart's content.

Home Missions in 1899.

The Board proposes to address itself to the accomplishment of several specific objects during the coming year.

(1) To the obliteration of the debt of $9,000, which at this writing hangs over the Board and its operations, and to bring its work to a cash basis.

(2) To make the Extension Department still more efficient. This is necessary if we wish to do City work, in an efficient way, as we should.

(3) To bring to the attention of the Church the importance and scope of the work by more efficient field service and by persistently pressing upon the mind of the Church the need of sustaining this work which lies at the basis of all church expansion and true progress.

(4) To lay plans for more efficient work in the large cities and growing towns. The centers of population are the fruitful points for larger missionary operations.

AUGUST.

Summer Wanes.

Summer is waning—on the bough
The luscious fruit hangs heavy now,
And all the pleasant fields again
Smile with their golden crops of grain;
The valleys and the hills restore
To man a hundred fold and more,
And Nature, from her teeming side,
Far more than man, is satisfied.

The New Protestant Church at Jeru- salem.

It is just about thirty years since Frederick William, Crown Prince of Prussia, visited the Holy Land. At that time the Sultan of Turkey presented him with a parcel of ground in Jerusalem which was occupied by the Crusaders when they were in possession of the Holy City, and on which were the ruins of the former hospice of the Knights of St. John and also of the church in connection with it. When "Our Fritz," as he was then known, entered the city by the way of the old pilgrim road from Jaffa he took public and solemn possession of the ruins. He then promised that a new Evangelical church should be erected on the sacred grounds. The Prince fully intended to carry out the project, and plans were made at Berlin for the new edifice; but the Franco-Prussian war intervened and the project was postponed for the time. The suffering and death of this much beloved prince soon after he became Emperor Frederick III. are fresh in the minds of our readers. His son, the present Emperor of Germany, has made good the promise of his father. By his personal influence and energy he overcame all obstacles and also contributed liberally towards its erection. When the excavations were made it was found that the foundations of the old Crusader Church which were discovered, and the new plans, exactly fitted each other. The corner-stone of the new church was laid in '93, and the completed church was dedicated in the latter part of October, '98. The new church belongs to the Established Evangelical Church, of Germany, which was constituted by the union of the Reformed and Lutheran bodies. It is also well known that both the present Emperor and his fathers before him belonged to the Reformed faith. This new church, accordingly, must be of interest to our people.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER AT JERUSALEM.

From '61 to '78 our church did little or nothing for Foreign Missions, now it contributes about $30,000 per year.

OCTOBER.

ST. GERMAIN L' AUXERROIS.

From the bell tower of this church the signal was rung for the massacre of St. Bartholomew, August 24, 1572. It is situated on the square opposite the Coligni Memorial.

Admiral Coligni and the Huguenots.

On the former page is found a picture of the memorial erected in Paris to the memory of the Great Admiral, as he was called by the French people—the famous Huguenot leader and martyr. As nobleman, statesman, father, warrior, Protestant, he united in himself all the virtues, talents and misfortunes of his Reformed fellow-Christians.

He was born Feb. 16, 1518. Brought to court while still a youth, he became in succession lieutenant of the French army (1547), governor of Paris (1551), and finally Admiral (1552). By the last title he is known in history. He served with success under Francis I. in Italy. After a brave defense of St. Onentin, in 1557, he was compelled to surrender, and was taken a prisoner to the Netherlands. In prison he read the Bible and the writings of the reformers. When he returned to France he espoused the Reformed faith and became the most prominent leader of the Huguenots, whose history, from this time on, is also the history of the noble Admiral.

“Huguenots” is the name given to the Reformed party in France. It is now impossible to discover the origin of this celebrated appellation. The most probable derivation is from a faulty pronunciation of the German word: Eidgenossen (Confederates) under which name the Reformed party at Geneva was known.

After many successful battles in behalf of the Huguenots, at the instigation of the infamous queen mother, the great Admiral was struck down by the hand of an assassin. The chiefs of the Huguenots were invited to Paris to take part in the marriage celebration of Henry of Navarre and Margaret, the sister of Charles IX. In the night of St. Bartholomew, Aug. 24, 1572, the signal for the destruction of all the Huguenots in Paris was given. Two men entered the sick room of the Coligni, addressed him: “Art thou not the Admiral?” “Young man,” replied Coligni, “thou comest against an aged and wounded man.” Thereupon the fiend dealt a deadly blow at one of the greatest, noblest and purest men of all times.

In 1589, the Huguenot leader, Henry IV., became King of France. Believing that he could never pacify his subjects so long as the majority of them regarded him as a heretic, he concluded that “Paris was worth a mass,” and on July 25, the only Huguenot who ever sat upon the throne of France, abjured Protestantism. On April 13, 1598, in the famous Edict of Nantes, Henry secured to the Huguenots religious liberty. In the spring of the past year the Reformed churches of France and other lands, America included, have fittingly observed the tricentenary of this famous law. On Oct. 22, 1685, Louis XIV. revoked the edict, thereby driving hundreds of thousands of his best subjects to Germany, England, Holland, Switzerland and America, our own Reformed church receiving a large part of these most desirable immigrants.

Louisa Henrietta of Brandenburg.

High in the calendar of Reformed saints stands the name of Louisa Henrietta, of Brandenburg. She was born Nov. 17, 1627, at the Hague, in Holland, and, as the eldest daughter of Frederick Henry, of Orange, was descended from Admiral Coligny, the warrior statesman, of the Reformed Christians of France, and of William of Orange, the Father of the Dutch Republic. Notwithstanding her princely birth and deep interest in literary pursuits Louisa was domestic and practical in her tastes and efforts to benefit the common people. After her marriage, at the age of nineteen, to the "Great Elector," Frederick William of Brandenburg, she introduced the cultivation of potatoes into Germany and brought skilled agriculturists from Holland to establish model farms. She erected an orphan asylum, which still flourishes as a memorial of gratitude over the birth of a son in answer to fervent prayer. She wrote hymns of superior merit, which are sung wherever the German language is spoken. One of these, "Jesus Meine Zuversicht," is sung at the funeral of every member of the royal family of Prussia. Not only the Kings of Prussia, and Emperors of Germany, but many other leading sovereigns of Europe were descended from this gifted and God-fearing woman.

Along with Amalia Elizabeth, Landgravine of Hesse Cassel, another Reformed heroine of the House of Orange, her husband secured by the peace of Westphalia religious toleration to the Reformed throughout Europe. After many afflictions, borne with Christian fortitude, Louisa died June 18, 1667, amid a rapturous vision of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Your Church Paper.

Do you take it? You should by all means. If you do not you will not know what the Lord is doing in His church. You say it is not interesting. You mean you are not interested. Read it and you will become so. It is too dear? No, it is not. It is as cheap as a good secular paper and much better. Your paper is cheaper than the average church paper. Taking forty weekly church papers we find the average cost is $2.25. The cost of THE MESSENGER is $1.75.

DECEMBER.

The Birth of the King.

There is a song in the air, there's a star in the sky,
There's a mother's deep prayer and a baby's low cry;
And the star rains its fire while the beautiful sing,
And the manger of Bethlehem cradles a King.

Jeanne D' Albret, Queen of Navarre.

Jeanne D'Albret is regarded as one of the heroines of the French Reformed Church. She was the Queen of Navarre — a small country which has since been absorbed by France—and her son, Henry of Navarre, became the most celebrated of the Huguenot leaders.

Queen Jeanne became a Protestant in 1561, and immediately issued an edict introducing the Reformed religion. In the midst of war she founded schools for the education of Reformed ministers, and invited the persecuted Protestants of France to seek a refuge in her dominions. An attempt was made to take away her crown, but she inspired her people to make a bold defense, and personally performed many deeds of heroism. When Catharine de Medicis told her that she ought to change her faith for the purpose of securing the crown of France for her son, she replied: "If at this very moment I held my son and all the kingdoms of the world in my hand, I would rather hurl them to the bottom of the sea than imperil the salvation of my soul."

After more than three hundred years Jeanne D'Albret is still known in France as "the good Queen of Navarre." She died in Paris June 4, 1572. Her last words were: "I believe that Christ is my only Saviour and Mediator, and I expect salvation through no other."

Bethany Orphans' Home, Womelsdorf, Pa.

The past year 145 little ones found shelter and training in this Home. One girl, after a long illness, entered the heavenly home. Ten of the children became full members of the church at last Easter. 135 children are at present in the Home. The total receipts during the year were $13,251.41. The endowment fund amounts to $6,427.50, and 76 shares of Thomas Iron Co. stock. The capacity of the Home is 140. There are constantly pressing appeals for the admission of needy children. At Christmas time the churches and Sunday schools are asked to make contributions for the support of the fatherless. The anniversary is always the occasion for the gathering of large numbers of Reformed people. At the 35th anniversary of the Home, held on August 25th, 1898, there were over twelve thousand people present.

Martin Bucer and Peter Martyr.

The Reformed Church of the Continent, during the Reformation, had a marked influence upon the church of England. Cramner, the great English churchman, called to his aid a number of Reformed theologians, who rendered him great assistance. One of these, of whom we give a portrait, was Martin Bucer, who became Professor of Theology at Cambridge. Here he continued his literary labors and was soon invited by Cramner to assist in the revision of the English Liturgy, which was closely modeled upon the Roman Mass. At the suggestion of Bucer confession to the priest, prayers for the dead, exorcism, anointing with oil, and the use of bright colored robes were removed from the book of common prayer. After having rendered services to the English church, which should not be forgotten, he died Feb. 28, 1551, in his 61st year.

Another co-laborer with Cramner in his work of reforming the English church was Peter Martyr, who had been a professor at Zurich and Strassburg. We were unable to secure a portrait of this distinguished theologian for this year's Almanac, but his labors were gladly acknowledged, and mention is made of them in some of the early editions of the Episcopal book of common prayer. He became Professor of Theology at Oxford, as Bucer was at Cambridge. On the accession of Queen Mary, he returned to Strasburg,—then to Zurich—where he died in 1562.

John 'A Lasco.

John 'A Lasco—or De Lasky, as the name is often written,—was born at Warsaw, Poland, in 1499; and died at Kriticic, Jan. 13, 1560. He was a nobleman and the nephew of the archbishop of Gnesen. His scholarship was remarkable and Erasmus called him "a soul without a stain." The King of Poland insisted that he must become a Roman Catholic bishop, but he refused the office and made a public profession of the Reformed faith, though his act led to privation and persecution. He wrote the earliest confession of faith of the Protestants of Holland, and may be regarded as the chief founder and organizer of the Reformed churches in the north of Europe. In 1550 he went to England to become superintendent of several churches, which had been founded in London by foreign refugees; but after the accession of Queen

Mary he fled to the continent with a company of adherents who after many trials, found a refuge in Germany. During his latter years 'A Lasco served as superintendent of the Reformed churches of Lesser Poland.

St. Paul's Orphan Home, Butler, Pa.

With 30 acres of ground and commodious buildings this home can accommodate 150 children. It has at present 85 inmates. The present indebtedness is $11,000; and its endowment, $8,000. The home is conducted on the principles of a family. It suffered a great loss last year in the death of Mrs. Prugh. It deserves the liberal support of the church.

MARTIN BUCER.

An Open Door in Japan.

The general condition of the work of Foreign Missions for the last few years presents a strange anomaly. Never before was the hand of God so clearly visible in opening doors, removing obstacles and overthrowing hindrances, while the home church has been apathetic and fails to respond in befitting measure to the divine call. The widespread commotions agitating the world should inspire to activity all who love the Lord Jesus Christ, and look for the coming of His Kingdom.

Interest in Missions.

There are still a few people who say they have no interest in missions. Their number, we fondly hope, grows less each year. The following reasons, if rightly pondered, will quicken the conscience, soften the heart and open the hand: 1. We ought to obey our Lord who bids us preach the gospel to every creature. 2. Christ has saved us, and out of thankfulness we ought to help Him save others. 3. If we have the mind which was in Christ Jesus, if we are like Him at all, our hearts will compel us to labor for the salvation of all men. 4. A good Christian will do his share of mission work.

Your Will.

Every good business man has his will made. Some good people put off this matter. They dread to think of it. They somehow feel that that belongs to the last days, and that when a man or woman makes a will they do it because they think their end is near. Not at all. They do not expect to die just yet. But they know that human beings may die at any time, and feeling that they are responsible as good stewards to God for the right distribution of the means He has allowed them to accumulate. They make their wills so that no wrong may be done. But will not the law fix that? And will a Christian let a worldly, non-Christian State divide what God has blessed? By God's blessing your work has prospered, and shall not He have His share for His work? Do you want God to forget you when you die? The State gives God no share! But you must not forget Him. You want to remember His cause in your will. Forms of bequests to all our institutions are given below. Select your own objects; but do make your will now and let something for the Lord's cause.

Forms For Bequests.

In making bequests to benevolent objects it is important that a proper form be used; otherwise the intent of the testator may be defeated. Hence we suggest the following:

NECROLOGY.

REV. SAMUEL KUHN, son of John and Elizabeth Kuhn, was born August 4, 1819, in Franklin County, Pa., and died October 23, 1897, aged 78 years, 2 months and 14 days. He was baptized in infancy, and on October 19, 1835, was confirmed and received into the Reformed Church by Rev. Frederick A. Rahawser. The early part of his life was spent on the farm. He was married to Eleanor M. Cunningham on March 22, 1843. Five sons and two daughters were born to them, of whom two daughters and one son, together with the mother, preceded him to eternity. March 13, 1877, he was married to Margaret Eckert, by Rev. W. H. H. Snyder. In the spring of 1841 he entered Marshall College at Mercersburg, Pa. Because of the lack of funds, he later left school, took up his trade of cabinet-making, and studied privately until October 24, 1850, when he was licensed by Mercersburg Classis. He first served the charge at New Bloomfield, Pa., from July 1, 1851, to December 19, 1862, when he accepted a call to the Aaronsburg charge. He remained here until April 1, 1867, when he began labor in the Hummelstown charge. November 1, 1882, he was called to the Berryburg charge, and on August 21, 1890, took the pastorate of the Liverford charge. In the spring of 1895, he retired from the active ministry, and took up his residence at Elizabethville, Pa., where he fell asleep in Jesus.

REV. HENRY F. WITZEL was born February 6, 1871, in Gerstlinger, Germany, and died November 4, 1897, at Hazleton, Pa., aged 26 years, 8 months and 28 days. He came to America when twelve years of age, and was brought up at Mahanoy City, Pa. He was baptized in infancy, and later confirmed by Rev. H. A. Keyser, D.D. He prepared himself for the ministry at Ursinus College and Seminary. In 1896 he took his first and only charge at Hazleton, Pa., as the pastor of Grace Reformed Church. On June 30, 1896, he was married to Miss Ida Keyser, of Mahanoy City, who, with a son, survives him.

REV. A. J. G. DUBBS, D.D., was born in Berks County, Pa., June 8, 1826, and died at Allentown, Pa., on November 7, 1897, aged 71 years and 6 months. He was baptized in infancy by a Lutheran minister. His father being a minister, he removed with the family to the Allentown charge, where his boyhood days were spent. In 1840 he entered college at Easton, Pa., to prepare for a life of business. After engaging in business for some time his health failed, and deciding to return to school, he entered Marshall College at Mercersburg, Pa., in 1845, where he remained until 1849, when he took charge of a select school for young men. The question presented itself to him, What does the Lord want me to do? After prayerful consideration he felt called to the ministry, and accordingly in 1851 was examined and licensed by the East Pennsylvania Classis, and received a call to preach English in the Reformed Church at Allentown, Pa., serving for one year, when he became the pastor of the South Whitehall charge. In 1857 he was called to the charge composed of Trexertown, Millerstown, Upper Milford, and Friedensville congregations, where he served faithfully and successfully for fourteen years, when at the division of the charge, he became the pastor of the first three named congregations, serving them until 1876. Though fifty years of age, at this time, he took charge of a mission at Allentown and one at Emmaus, where he labored diligently for sixteen years, with a membership of twelve hundred. His health failed him and he retired from the active service. He was married on October 18, 1853, to Maria Schreiber, who died January 23, 1894.

REV. C. T. HEIMBERGER was born in Germany in 1819, and died November 19, 1897, aged 78 years. He studied theology in his youth, but not until late in life, and after coming to this country, did he enter the sacred office of the ministry. At the age of sixty-three he became a pastor in Brooklyn, N. Y., and later at Milltown, N. J., preaching in all seven years, when he retired, and for nine years lived at Bridgeport, Conn., and quite recently in New York City. He lies buried at Allentown, Pa.

REV. HENRY W. SUPER, D.D., LL.D., was born in Baltimore, Md., December 31, 1824, and died at his home in Collegeville, Pa., November 26, 1897, aged 72 years, 10 months and 25 days. The youngest of seven children, he was baptized in infancy. He attended private schools, and after the death of his father, 1837, he entered a counting-house. He was a faithful employee and rose rapidly, in a few years becoming head book-keeper in a large establishment. In 1840 he united with the First Reformed Church of Baltimore. Feeling the higher calling, he in the fall of 1844 entered Mercersburg College, from which he graduated in 1849 with the first honors of his class. He studied theology for one year, then for lack of funds he went to Memphis, Tenn., and taught a school for five months, when he started to return to Mercersburg, stopping on the way at Tiffin, Ohio, where Heidelberg College was just beginning its work, March, 1851. While there he attended the sessions of Classis and was examined and licensed on April 27, 1851, with a view of taking the Mt. Pisgah Reformed Church, near Tiffin. During the time that classis consumed in the division of the charge Mr. Super returned to Mercersburg, and completed the course in the fall of 1851. He was called to Waynesboro, in Franklin County, Pa., beginning his pastorate there November 22, 1851. In March, 1854, he resigned because of ill health, but at the end of the year returned, and remained pastor until April 1, 1862, when he took the Greensburg charge. He resigned here in April, 1865, and returned to his native city of Baltimore. He received a call as Professor of Mathematics in the Keystone State Normal School, Kutztown, Pa., where he remained until June, 1870. About this time Ursinus College opened its doors, and Mr. Super became the Professor of Church History and Homiletics, which position he occupied for twenty-two years. At the death of President J. H. A. Bomberger, D.D., he was elected acting president, but at the end of the year declined to serve longer in that position, and also resigned his professorship. Heidelberg Theological Seminary, Tiffin, Ohio, offered him the Chair of New Testament Exegesis and Theology, but he declined. September 1, 1892, he was unanimously elected President of Ursinus College, and ably filled that position until July 6, 1893, when he resigned, after forty-two years in active ministerial and educational work. He is buried at Trappe, Pa. In 1878 he was married to Mrs. Sarah H. Detwiler, of Trappe, Pa.

REV. JOHN L. BRETZ was born in Stark County, Ohio, near Massillon, June 27, 1852, and died at his home in Millersburg, Indiana, November 30, 1897, aged 45 years, 5 months and 3 days. He was baptized in infancy, and later confirmed in the faith of the Reformed Church. He was a farmer boy, assisting his father during the summer, and attending the district school in the winter, until at the age of twenty-one he went for one year to the Smithville Academy. He taught a term of school, and then entered the Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio, graduating in 1880. He took a course in the Seminary, and in 1882 was licensed and ordained to the ministry, having as his first field of labor the charge at Bluffton, Indiana. In August, 1886, he was called to the pastorate at Canal Fulton, Ohio, where he labored successfully until June, 1891, when he accepted a call to Canal Winchester, Ohio. He resigned here in 1895 to enter the field at Millersburg, Indiana, where he preached his last sermon October 31, 1897. He was married on September 3, 1884, to Miss Maggie S. Bauman, daughter of Rev. F. C. Bauman, Maquoketa, Iowa. Seven children blessed the union, four of whom preceded the father in death.

REV. ISAAC MATZINGER was born in Ruedlingen, Canton Schaafhausen, Switzerland, January 19, 1831, and died in Elk Rapids, Mich., January 29, 1898, aged 67 years and 10 days. He came with his parents to this country when twenty years old and settled in Burlington, Ohio. His preparations for the ministry were received at Heidelberg Theological Seminary, Tiffin, Ohio, and he served the following charges: Bascom, Kenton, and Ashland, in Ohio; Auburn and Clay City, Indiana; one in Minnesota; Chicago, Illinois; West Bay City, and Elk Rapids, in Michigan. He was twice married—March 27, 1859, to Miss Ophelia Ruetenik, who died while he was pastor at Ashland, Ohio. His second wife was Miss Dorothea Nass, to whom he was married November 30, 1875. She remains to mourn his departure. He was buried in the cemetery at Swanton, Ohio.

REV. CLEMENT Z. WEISER, D.D., was born October 29, 1830, at Selinsgrove, Pa., and died at East Greenville, Pa., March 1, 1898, aged 67 years, 4 months and 2 days. He was the son of Rev. Daniel and Caroline Weiser. He graduated from Marshall College in 1850, and from the Seminary in 1852. For several years he taught German in that institution. He was ordained to the ministry in 1855, and served as his first charge Selinsgrove and vicinity. In 1862 he was called as assistant pastor to his father in the New Goshenhoppen charge, and in November of the year following he was unanimously elected to succeed his father in this charge. Here he spent the remainder of his life. For a number of years he was a member of the Board of Foreign Missions and for a time its president. He served some years as trustee of Franklin and Marshall College. He was much of a literary man, writing for the several church papers, as well as the author of a number of books. Since 1874 he was a member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. Perhaps the greatest and most valuable work of Dr. Weiser was the part he took in the celebrated "Peace Measures" in the Reformed Church. At a meeting of the General Synod at Lancaster, Pa., in May, 1878, he proposed the creation of a commission to "consider and solemnly deliberate over all matters of controversy in the Church, with a view of devising a plan of amicable adjustment." The proposition was accepted, and it proved to be the solution to the problem that had harassed the Church. Dr. Weiser was made the chairman of the commission, and it formulated the "Peace Compact," which was heartily adopted by the people. The same commission also prepared the Directory of Worship, which was accepted by General Synod. Dr. Weiser was married in 1859 to Louisa C. Gutelius, of Mifflinburg, Pa.

REV. AUGUSTUS KANNE was born in Detmold, Germany, and educated for the ministry in the Mission House, St. Chrishona. He died at University Place, a suburb of Lincoln, Neb., March 20, 1898, aged 55 years, 5 months and 20 days. In 1870 he took charge of the Church at Wabasha, Minn., and labored there seven years. He next went to LaCrosse, Wis., and ministered there five years, when he went to Han, Iowa, remaining there ten years. He was then commissioned by the German Board of Missions to Lincoln, Neb., where he labored for six years prior to his death. He was twice married—first to Miss Elizabeth Danuser, of Switzerland. She died July 6, 1895, and on September 10, 1896, he was married to Miss Catherine Danuser, a sister to his former wife. He was a valuable man to the German portion of our Church in the west.

REV. DANIEL SCROTH was born July 13, 1834, in Wurtemberg, Germany, and died in Helvetica, W. Va., March 21, 1898, aged 63 years, 8 months and 8 days. He came to America in May, 1854, and worked on a farm until 1866, when he felt called to the ministry, and entered the Mission House at Franklin, Wis. After three years of diligent study he was examined and licensed, and began the Master's work at Marion, Ohio. On January 16, 1872, he was married to Dorothea Fisher. She passed into glory in October of the same year. A year later he was married to Elizabeth Nill. In his last days he suffered great affliction.

REV. JACOB O. MILLER, D.D., was born in Woodstock, Va., December 30, 1822, and died at his home in York, Pa., April 18, 1898, aged 75 years, 3 months and 18 days. His boyhood was spent in Reading, Pa. He later taught school and prepared himself for college. In 1845 he entered Marshall College, Mercersburg, Pa., and graduated with honor in 1848. He took the theological course in the Seminary at the same place, graduating in 1850. On October 13th of the same year he was ordained to the ministry at Martinsburg, Va. His first charge was at Winchester, Va., as a missionary, serving until January 1, 1853, when he received and accepted a call to the First Reformed Church (now Trinity), York, Pa., where he faithfully served his Lord till death—forty-five years. He was a trustee of Franklin and Marshall College for more than twenty-five years, and a member of the Board of Visitors of the Theological Seminary. He was President of the Board of Home Missions from 1871 to 1873, and also in 1893 was president of the General Synod. He was chaplain of the York City Fire Department over twenty-five years. He leaves a wife and three children.

REV. LAWRENCE D. LEBERMAN was born in Germany and came to America when quite young. He studied for the ministry in Pennsylvania College (Lutheran), Gettysburg, Pa., and was ordained by the Goshenhoppen Classis in 1846. His first charge consisted of five congregations—Amity, Baumstown, Hubers, Brownbacks, and one other. In 1848 he was called to a charge in Westmoreland County, Pa., which had nine congregations. In 1856 he became the pastor of the Petersburg charge, and in 1858 of the Mercer charge. He was called to Meadville in 1860, where he resigned in 1866 and for several years was without a charge, serving as corresponding secretary of the Board of Home Missions. In 1869 he became pastor of the Leesport charge, but resigned in 1870 and assumed the pastorate of the Pottstown charge. This was his last field. He resigned in 1882 and engaged in secular business in Pottstown, and preached as opportunity afforded. About fifteen years ago he removed to Philadelphia, Pa., engaging in business. He died April 28, 1898, aged 77 years, 10 months and 5 days. He was twice married—first to Louisa Benford, who died some thirty years ago. His second wife was Catherine Francis, who survives him. He is buried at Reading, Pa.

REV. FRANK FERENCZI who was the faithful pastor of the Hungarian Mission at Pittsburg, Pa., died on Friday, June 10, 1898, aged 45 years. He had devoted much time and hard work to this field, and dearly loved his congregation, which was evinced by the fact that he left all his possessions—several hundred dollars in a building association and $1,000 insurance on his life—to his people.

REV. J. G. FETZER was born in Manneburg, Wurtemberg, Germany, January 6, 1854, and died on his farm, near Wirth, Arkansas, on June 18, 1896, aged 44 years, 5 months and 12 days. In his native land he attended the public schools; afterwards he learned the trade of stonemason. He prepared for the ministry in the Mission House at Basel, Germany. In 1879 he came to this country, locating at Wyandotte, Mich., where he served a congregation for five years. Later he served three congregations in Ohio and one at Oshkosh, Wis. He was appointed visiting minister, locating for a year and three months at Schleisinger, Wis. He withdrew from the Evangelical Synod of North America and went to Wyandotte, Mich., for a short time, then to Russellville, Ky., and after three months (1890), to Wirth, Ark., established a congregation and served two others in Missouri. He was married in 1880 to Miss Amelia Ruetz, of Wyandotte, Mich., who with seven children survives him.

REV. JOHN C. KLAR was born October 25, 1823, at Eckhartsborn, Kreis Nidda, Hessen-Darmstadt, Germany, and died on his farm, near Navarre, Ohio, July 16, 1898, aged 74 years, 9 months and 11 days. He came to this country with his parents at the age of thirteen, and resided in Baltimore, Md. He attended public school, then took a course in Mercersburg College, from which he graduated in 1850. He prepared for the ministry in the Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., and was ordained at a meeting of classis at Wooster, Ohio, in 1852. He was in the active ministry thirty-five years, serving seven different charges, and supplying various fields, until 1887, when health failed him, and he retired to his farm. He was married October 22, 1854, to Catherine Krouse.

REV. THOMAS GILMORE APPLE, D.D., LL.D., was born in Easton, Pa., November 14, 1829, and died at his home, on the Franklin and Marshall College grounds, Lancaster, Pa., on September 17, 1898, aged nearly 69 years. In his early boyhood he worked in his father's mill. He obtained his education at Easton and Mercersburg, graduating from Marshall College in 1850. He was valedictorian of his class. After graduation he taught in the Female Seminary, under Rev. J. R. Koolsen, at Norristown, Pa. He studied theology during his college course and afterwards privately. He assumed charge of an academy in Easton in 1852, and at the same time he became the pastor of the congregation at Reigelsville, and also of the Lower Mt. Bethel congregation, about eight miles from Easton. In the winter of 1855-56 he became pastor of the Second Church, Greensburg, Pa. After fifteen months of service he labored a short time at Mechanicsburg, Pa., then served at Greencastle, Pa., from 1858 to 1865, when he became President of Mercersburg College, at Mercersburg, Pa., and in 1871 he was elected Professor of Church History and New Testament Exegesis in the Theological Seminary just removed from Mercersburg to Lancaster, Pa. In 1877 he was elected President of Franklin and Marshall College, retaining his Professorship in the Seminary, till 1889, when he resigned the Presidency but continued his position as professor in the Seminary. He received the title of A.B. and of A.M. in course, from his alma mater, and from Lafayette College the degrees of Ph.D. and LL.D. In 1887 he succeeded Dr. Harbaugh as editor of the "Mercersburg Quarterly Review." Dr. Apple served his Church in various capacities. He attended every meeting of General Synod from its inception in 1863 to the present time, except two, and was President of the Synod at Reading, Pa., in 1893. He was a delegate to the Alliance of the Reformed Churches at Belfast, Ireland, in 1884, and read a paper before the Alliance in Philadelphia, in 1888. His writings were frequently found in "The Messenger," "Christian World" and "Quarterly Review." He was chairman of the joint committee on the contemplated union of the Reformed Church in America and the Reformed Church in the United States. He was also a member of the Peace Commission and of the Liturgical commission. He was married to Miss Emma Matilda Miller, of Easton, Pa., in 1851, who with eight children and two brothers survives him. He is buried in the cemetery at Lancaster, Pa.

For the Sunday-School.
BRIGHTEST GLORY

By Frank M. Davis.

Is the book that is nicest in appearance, no expense being spared in its printing and binding to accomplish this end. It is the work of a composer of the highest rank, the author of "Is My Name Written There?" and "Lead Me, Saviour," and it is the book that sells better in the Reformed Church than any other of its class. When you ask for samples to select from be sure this one is included.

Price, 35 Cents by mail; $3.60 per Dozen, not by mail.

For the Church Choir.
Sweney's Anthem Selections

Will be found just the thing for the average chorus choir. The selections are from the pens of the best writers, as Palmer, Geibel, Sweney, Entwistle — a vein of beautiful melody and richest harmony runs throughout the book. Well adapted for church choirs—it will give added interest to the Sunday Services. Sample copy mailed for 60 cents, or sent on approval to choristers desiring new anthem books.

$5.00 per Dozen, by express.

An Ideal Remedy.

An ideal remedy is the Compound Oxygen
of Drs. Starkey & Palen, of 1112 Girard Street,
for the cure of CHRONIC DISEASES.

It is made up of the vital elements of the air in such proportions as to render it much richer in the life-giving ozone. It differs essentially from all substances used in medical inhalation, can, in no case, injure the patient, unlike drugs, leaving no evil effects. It is easy to take and pleasant to the taste. Anyone can take it. It is simply breathed. Besides, its good effects are permanent. Instead of stimulants and narcotics, often a few inhalations will give relief, and, best of all, do no injury. Its merits, after more than a quarter of a century, are well-known and attested by grateful patients. It cures disease and debility. Abundant and most reliable testimony is at hand. Send for our book, "How does it cure?" Home and office treatment. Consultation free. We have removed to 1112 Girard St. Write or call.

Our Way....

Is to sell all our product without the aid of the popular and almost universal and indispensable traveling salesman.

Our Way is not popular in the trade, and we have no imitators. To imitate would be disastrous to many a factory—takes too fine an organ. Our organs are our salesmen. They stand on their merits and are sold on their merits all over the world. There is something in this fact of great importance to the buyer and user of an organ. Please investigate.
